HAVAS

Paris, May 19th.—The Government has presented its Budget for the coming year; there will be a slight increase in taxes generally so as to effect a fiscal equilibrium.
London, May 19th.—The King of the Belgians had a long interview with Lord Salisbury and other members of the Cabinet yesterday; it is stated that the Belgian question, in which King Leopold is much interested, was the principal subject of discussion.
St. Petersburg, May 19th.—The Crown Prince of Italy arrived here today; he will stay at the Imperial Palace of Peterhof.

GALVESTON.

Paris, May 17th.—Boulangier has written from Jersey saying that, to put an end to all questions between his partisans and himself, he has dissolved the National Boulangist Committee. This letter has been published by the Boulangist journals without the slightest commentary. An ammunition factory at St. Etienne has, it is said, received orders from Russia for smokeless powder sufficient for a million guns.
London, May 17th.—The Standard correspondent in Berlin announces that Germany and France, in order to avoid frontier disputes, have arranged to leave a large free space between the two countries, the services of all large stations.
Berlin, May 17th.—The police are allowing a number of persons expelled under the Socialist law to return. The Berlin Socialists are forming a central strike committee composed of delegates from all trades to oppose the masters' association.

London, May 18th.—The opposition of the United States to the action of the anti-slavery conference in Brussels has caused the Government press in Belgium, causing a discussion which goes far beyond the confines of the question in dispute. Not only are the protective tariffs of the United States attacked, but the events causing the Civil War are discussed.

The Universal Review publishes a memorial to the Czar protesting against the outrages committed on Russian exiles in Siberia; amongst other signatures there are those of many members of the two houses of Parliament.
The negotiations between England and Germany for the purpose of settling their respective claims in Eastern Africa are progressing actively.
Berlin, May 18th.—Bismarck has refused numerous offers from English and American sources for the publication of his memoirs.

London, May 18th.—It is stated that horrible scenes have taken place at a fair in Córdoba, the capital of Eastern Siberia; the city was simultaneously threatened by fire and a cyclone, resulting in the destruction of three quarters of the houses and the loss of hundreds of lives; the garrison refused to give any assistance, stating that they were obliged to protect the barracks and other Government property; the hospital par was burned alive; the poor terrified citizens huddled together in the streets thinking the Day of Judgment had arrived; no aid whatever has been organized for the homeless thousands without means of existence.

Valparaiso, 19th.—Yesterday the British steamer arrived at Corral. The next steamer will carry to Europe a cargo of nitrate from the Lollin mines valued at $400,000.

There is nothing fresh about the two millions loan except that the negotiations with Baring continue. The Argentine holders of the amortizable debt have petitioned to have the debt closed.
The weather is bitterly cold and a windy frost is reported from the interior.
The budget for 1890 will probably be presented this week.
The Bata is very dull and weak; Orma closed at 27½. National Bank at 98, for end of month; business generally quiet.

THE CUSTOMS' REVENUE.
Long before the Minister of Finance began the discussion of the Argentine Budget, the Buenos Ayres Customs' revenue had been a subject of much interest. The Buenos Ayres Customs' revenue had been a subject of much interest. The Buenos Ayres Customs' revenue had been a subject of much interest.

When we consider that the Argentine Republic is nearly twenty times larger than the Banda Oriental, that Argentina has at least six times the population of Uruguay, that the Argentine Customs' tariff is far less liberal than the Uruguayan tariff, that we import and export at least three times as much as our Uruguayan neighbors on the other side of the Plate, that the act that the Montevideo Customs' House yields greater returns than that of Rio de Janeiro, and that the Argentine Customs' revenue is nearly double that of Uruguay, we are led to conclude that the Argentine Customs' revenue is nearly double that of Uruguay.
